HOW MANY WOMEN DO YOU KNOW

Who Can Say They Are Thoroughly Well? How They Can Be Strong.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.) I don't feel very well; I am so tired all the time; I don't know what is the matter with me.

You hear these words every day. As often as you meet your friends, just so often are the words repeated. More than likely you speak the same pregnant words yourself, and there is no doubt but that you do feel far from well most of the time.

There is a cause. And there is a remedy for all that is connected with it.

Lydia E. Pinkham discovered the source of nearly all the suffering endured by the sex. "Women's Complaints,"—these two words are full of more misery to women than any two words that can be found in the language of the world. Sudden fainting, depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or to do anything, headache, "bearing down," and kindred symptoms of serious disturbance seldom imagined by your family physician, and constantly mentioned by you. The remedy is found; the same noble woman who discovered the cause of all your misery also worked out the remedy. All druggists have it. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the greatest blessing that ever came into the lives of suffering women.

TO FIGHT THE TARIFF BILL.

Democrats Will Oppose the Measure in the House--Road Bill Approved But Secretary Carlisle Does Not Expect It To Pass the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 24.--The republicans notified the democratic members of the ways and means committee this morning that they would submit the tariff and the bond and certificate propositions to them tomorrow morning so that they might be brought into the house for consideration on Thursday.

The republicans met when the house, after a brief and uneventful session, adjourned until Thursday and proceeded to complete their work on their bills.

Ex-Speaker Crisp, leader of the democrats on the ways and means committee, and Turner of Georgia, special representative of the administration on that committee, say that the tariff measure will be resisted in committee and on the floor with all the means in the power of the minority, which, however, is too small in the house to make much resistance.

As to the bond and certificate measure, Turner and all the other administration democrats are expected to support it.

Secretary Carlisle, during an interview which ex-Governor Dingley, chairman of the ways and means committee, had with him this morning, said that he approved of the 3 per cent. coin bond proposition and that for certificates of indebtedness which the republicans of the committee will report. Secretary Carlisle said that he would prefer to have the bonds specially made gold bonds, but he admitted that it was not to be expected that such a provision could be passed.

Secretary Carlisle does not expect the bond and certificate proposition to get through the senate, but he thinks the passage of it through the house will have a wholesome effect on the country and abroad.

Telegrams are already arriving from some of the 129 absentees of the house announcing that they will reach Washington in time to vote for the tariff and bond bills which will be reported on Thursday. Among the New Yorkers who have responded to the sergeant-at-arms' telegrams are Messrs. Fletcher, Lofgren and Odell. There are other New York absentees, but a considerable number have remained in town. Fifty of the absentees are members of the New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland delegations who arranged to return immediately after Christmas if their services were needed.

One of the unfortunates was Mr. Halner of Nebraska. He had apparently just reached his home when the telegraphic demand for his return arrived. He replied that he would be here on time, but in order to do so he must have left Nebraska a few hours after his arrival.

The purpose of the ways and means committee to report two bills, instead of coupling the tariff and financial measures, which they have under consideration in one bill, gives great satisfaction to the free silver republicans, who would otherwise have been compelled to antagonize their own party, since few, if any, of the number favor a bond issue. Before proceeding to this extremity they would have urged on the floor of the house the separation of the two measures. A busy canvass made by them yesterday developed the fact that their proposed protest would have been warmly supported by many of the anti-silver republicans on the ground that it would be manifestly unfair to place them in an attitude of hostility to their party when no necessity existed for it. The silver republicans proposed holding a conference today to consider this subject further, but it is now likely to be abandoned in view of the action of the ways and means committee in deciding to report two bills.

The attendance of senators at noon today was quite as large as usual, no falling out on account of the Christmas holidays being noticeable. The senate galleries were pretty well filled. Resolutions and memorials from Ohio endorsing the action of the president in relation to Venezuela and in favor of recognizing the Cuban revolutionists as belligerents were presented by Mr. Sherman, rep. of Ohio, and referred to the committee on foreign relations.

The senate democratic steering committee met this morning to consider the vacancies on the senate committees and revise the minority representation. Nothing conclusive was agreed to and the committee adjourned to meet again this afternoon.

Trifling Traffic Resumed.

Philadelphia, Dec. 24.--The settlement last night of the strike of the motormen and conductors of the Union Traction company, which was inaugurated a week ago to-day, was followed this morning by a complete resumption of traffic on all lines of the Union Traction system.

The city has again assumed a normal appearance, the cordons of mounted police, which gave material aid in quelling riotous disturbances during the past week, have been dismissed, and policemen are no longer acting as guards on the trolley cars. That the revival of the street car service was welcomed was evidenced by the crowds who used the cars this morning in going to their places of business.

While the strike has been particularly deplored because of its occurrence at the holiday season, the fact that the service has been restored on the day before Christmas is pleasing to buyers and sellers alike.

Some of the non-union motormen and conductors who have been engaged by the company since the strike ended are this morning, but a majority of the cars were in charge of old employees.

The monetary damage to the company's property, which was inflicted almost wholly by sympathizers' he strike, will mount up into the hundreds.

Nearly Cooked Alive.

Wooster, O., Dec. 24.--Samuel Kea, a sawmill engineer, near Georgetown, this county, was almost cooked alive last evening. He went under the boiler to make some repairs. A valve opened and the escaping steam poured on to him.

Big Concern Incorporated.

Somers Hayes, Erasmus J. Jeramowski, Frederick P. Olcott, Arthur H. Proal, John Spence and Samuel Thorne of New York city. Julius J. Suckert of New York subscribes for 69,988 shares of the capital stock of the company.

England Wants Indemnity.

London, Dec. 24.--Governor Holcomb yesterday received a letter from Secretary Olney, enclosing the request of the British ambassador for $400,000, growing out of the assault on the English family of Daytons in Nebraska by the McCarthy outlaw gang. The claim is regarded here as extortionate.

The Flood in Missouri.

St. Louis, Dec. 24.--Advises received here from Warsaw, Benton county, Mo., state that the flood situation there is growing alarming.

The Osage, although stationary on Sunday night, was higher yesterday. The critical period is expected to be reached to-day, when the flood, which is now causing great destruction in the Osage bottoms between Schell City and Rockville, reaches that point. The Sedalia, Warsaw and Southwestern passenger station at Warsaw is a floating ark, but ropes attached to fixed objects are preventing it from being carried off. Trains on that road cannot get closer than two miles.

The Osage is now sweeping across the Osage bottoms between Schell City and Rockville. The Missouri, Kansas and Texas tracks have been swept away, and trains from the south on that road now reach Sedalia by running over the Missouri Pacific from Nevada to Harbottleville, thence over the Kansas City division to this city. The sweeping of the Osage bottoms, embracing thousands of acres of rich farming lands, has caused a severe loss which can hardly be estimated until the waters subside.

A Royal Betrothal.

London, Dec. 24.--A dispatch from Rome to the Pall Mall Gazette says that the Prince of Naples, heir to the Italian throne, is engaged to be married to Princess Matilda, granddaughter of Prince Regent Luitpold of Bavaria.

Pence Meeting in Boston.

Edward Atkinson, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe and Mrs. Kate Gannett Wells. A resolution was adopted declaring that war between the United States and Great Britain is a moral impossibility.

Yellow Fever in Salvador.

San Francisco, Dec. 24.--The Pacific Mail steamship San Jose arrived in port yesterday morning from Panama and Central American ports. She brings news of an increase in the yellow fever epidemic in Salvador. Several foreigners have fallen victims to the disease, and many persons who can get away from the country are leaving for the north or south.

Smallpox on a Steamship.

New York, Dec. 24.--The Lamport & Holt steamship Pascal, which arrived this morning from Brazilian ports, is detained at Quarantine for fumigation. Soon after leaving Maceio one of the assistant engineers was taken down with smallpox.

Health Officer Doty found the patient convalescent. The steamship will be permitted to proceed early this afternoon.
